When

Saturday, February 18, 2012

Why

You are invited to attend the Twelfth Annual Conference of the Central Texas Council of Teachers of Mathematics (CTCTM) on the morning of February 18, 2012. The conference will provide mathematics educators in Central Texas an opportunity to establish connections with colleagues, share ideas and experiences, disseminate information about reform in mathematics education, and collaborate on professional development. The registration fee of $10 includes morning coffee and snacks, and will also serve as your CTCTM membership fee for 2012. For college and university students, the fee is only $5.

You can't beat that for a bargain!

Sessions

Participants will have the opportunity to attend three sessions during the half-day conference. Elementary, Middle, and Secondary Level Sessions will be offered during each presentation time.

Opening Session

*Crafting Creative Thinkers:
Discovering Patterns in Nature, Math, and Learning*

The keynote speaker will be Dr. Ed Burger, Professor of Mathematics and Lissack Professor for Social Responsibility and Personal Ethics at Williams College and Vice Provost for Strategic Educational Initiatives at Baylor University. He is the author of over 35 research articles, 12 books, and 15 video series.
